

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

INTRODUCTION.

Three persons bearing the name of Lapham early settled in New England, two of them in Massachusetts and the other in Rhode Island. The first was Thomas, who came to Scituate previous to 1635, and some of whose descendants are recorded in this Register. The second was John, who was a weaver and came from Devonshire in England. He was born in 1635, and settled in Providence, R. I., where in 1673 he married Mary, daughter of William Mann of Providence. His house was burned by the Indians and he afterwards moved to Dartmouth, Mass., where he resided until his decease. He had four sons and one daughter. His descendants are found in Rhode Island, in western New York, and in several of the western States. Increase Allen Lapham, LL. D. of Milwaukie, is of this descent.

The third was John Lapham, who married a Hollis, in Malden, in 1671, and we find no trace of him afterwards. There is a tradition among the older members of both families, that two brothers came from England at different times and settled in different parts of the United States. This would indicate that Thomas of Scituate and John of Providence were brothers, but like most of the traditions respecting lineage, the facts which bear upon the case do not substantiate it. On the contrary, all the evidence goes to show that they belonged to two distinct families.

This little pamphlet is not offered as a complete Register of the descendants of Thomas Lapham of Scituate. The author has devoted some time during the past two years to gathering up such material as was easily available, and one object in presenting it in this unfinished condition, is to preserve it. At some future day these materials may be of use to some one who may publish a more complete genealogy of this family, including the female line, which has been almost entirely ignored in these brief records. It is believed, however, that these records will enable every American who bears this name and belongs to this lineage, to trace his descent from his emigrant ancestors.

WILLIAM B. LAPHAM.

EXPLANATIONS.

---

The Roman numerals preceding a name refer to the number in the family ; the figures to the place in the genealogical line. Half numbers are used where additional names were received after the numberings were completed, to obviate the necessity of numbering over. Numerals after a name refer the reader back to the place of such person in the regular order of numbering ; b. is the abbreviation used for born, m. for married, d. for died and bap. for baptized.

FIRST GENERATION.

1. Thomas Lapham was at Scituate, Mass, in 1635. He probably came from the County of Kent in Old England, though our information on this point is not definite and reliable. Neither have we been able to ascertain the precise time when he left England for America, but we have reason to believe it was in the year 1634. From his intimate relations with Rev. John Lothrop, pastor of the first church in Scituate, and Elder Nathaniel Tilden, the first ruling Elder, we are led to believe that he was one of those men of Kent who left England in order to seek a place where they could enjoy more perfect religious freedom. He joined Lothrop's church March 24, 1636, and was married March 13, 1637, to Mary, eldest daughter of Elder Nathaniel Tilden.* His place of residence was * Elder Nathaniel Tilden was of Tenterden, in Kent, Eng., and came to this country with his family in 1634, in the Hercules of Sandwich. He had previously visited Plymouth Colony, having been in Scituate previous to 1628. He brought with him seven children, all born in England, and several servants. His wife was Lydia, daughter of Thomas Bourne, formerly of Kent, but an early resident of Marshfield. Mr. Tilden was ruling Elder of Lothrop's church and one of the wealthiest of the early settlers. He died in 1641, and his widow married Mr. Timothy Hatherly in 1642.

near Scituate harbor. He died in 1648, leaving four daughters and two sons. His will which was dated two years before, is found recorded among the early Plymouth Colony Records. His wife Mary, was made Executrix, and the four oldest children are mentioned. This will was allowed to be proved at a Court holden at New Plymouth June 5, 1651. The following is the order of the Court thereon:

"Liberty is allowed to Mr. Hatherly to prove the Will of Thomas Lapham, deceased at Scituate, in the regard the widow Lapham through weakness is unable to come into Court."

The name of Thomas Lapham rarely appears in the town records of Scituate, but is more frequently found in the ecclesiastical history of the town. No records which we have been able to find indicate his age at death, and they are equally silent respecting the date of the death of his widow.

APPENDIX B.

Patriotic Record—Old French War.

War of the Revolution.

In the war for Independence, the following named Laphams were enrolled and served in different Massachusetts Regiments :

Abial,<sup>54</sup> Amos,<sup>29</sup> Asa,<sup>39</sup> Benjamin,<sup>34</sup> Daniel,<sup>35</sup> David,<sup>28</sup> George, Isaac,<sup>36</sup> James,<sup>45</sup> Jesse,<sup>34</sup> John,<sup>23</sup> John, Jr.,<sup>55</sup> King,<sup>37</sup> King, Jr.,<sup>100</sup> Lemuel,<sup>49</sup> Oliver,<sup>47</sup> Stephen,<sup>33</sup> Thomas,<sup>90</sup> Asa,<sup>39</sup> Isaac.<sup>36</sup>

King<sup>37</sup> Lapham was First Lieutenant in Capt. Turner's Company, and in one other company.

John, Jr.,<sup>55</sup> served in the army operating against Burguoyne, and died from the effects of an injury received while in the line of duty.

Nathaniel<sup>26</sup> and Joseph<sup>25</sup>, both served in the Navy during the Revolutionary War. The former either died from exposure or was killed about the time of the battle of Bunker Hill.

War of the Rebellion.

We have made no effort to obtain information respecting the service rendered in the above war by different branches of this Family, but the following are those of the descendants of Abijah Lapham<sup>61</sup> who had a part in that sanguinary conflict :

William B.,<sup>253</sup> was acting assistant surgeon in the hospitals at Augusta, during the fall and winter of 1861 ; enlisted in the ranks in the summer of 1862 ; was promoted to second and first lieutenant in the 23d Maine Infantry ; helped recruit and served as first lieutenant in the 7th Maine Battery, and after the surrender of the rebel armies and the close of the war, was appointed A. Q. M. and ordered on duty in Vermont—mustered out Oct. 30, 1865.

James M.,<sup>252</sup> served 3 years in the 36th Massachusetts Infantry ; was with the 9th Army Corps at Jackson and Knoxville. Isaac F.,<sup>253</sup> served in the 10th Maine Infantry and 7th Maine Battery. John E.,<sup>259</sup> was in the 32nd Maine Infantry and was severely wounded at the battle of Peeble's Farm, front of Petersburg. Richard M.,<sup>268</sup> served three years in the 5th Maine and was wounded and taken prisoner at the battle at Spotsylvania Court House. After the capture of Richmond, Va., an entry was found in the hospital records as follows: "R. M. Lapham, I, 5th Maine, wound in shoulder." This is all that is known of him by his friends since his capture. Abijah<sup>271</sup> was in the 32nd Maine, and on the day of his arrival at the front, which was then at the North Anna river, Va., he was accidentally shot by a comrade and lived only a few hours. Amos E.,<sup>275</sup> was a wagoner in the 5th Maine, and died in consequence of an injury by a heavy box of freight which fell upon him from a wagon. Charles<sup>276</sup> served in both the 10th Maine Infantry and 7th Maine Battery. Joseph C.,<sup>269</sup> served also in these two organizations. Number of soldiers from the three families, 9 ; aggregate of service, 23 years.
